

Welcome to the Advising Network Meeting!

September 7th, 2023

Check In

- Small group!
 - How did the beginning of fall semester go?
 - Any trends/questions about fall?
- Anyone new to the Advising Network?

What are YOU interested in learning about?

- Small group - again!
- Handout & discussion
 - Listening to feedback from EAA process
 - We want to make Advising Network work for you
 - Evaluating format and content
- Opportunity to share feedback
- Collect handouts (no names unless you want follow up)

School of Health and Human Sciences Update

- Dr. Brenda Bass, Dean & Professor, College of Social and Behavioral Sciences
- New School of Health and Human Sciences
- Structure/big picture updates
- Advising structure/overview
- Questions?

UPDATES TO HEALTH & HUMAN SCIENCES

GOOD NEWS!

- HLC approval of BSN degree
- Increases in enrollments:
 - / Kinesiology & Athletic Training
 - / Human Services (online, overseen by DFAC and ODE)
 - / Counseling graduate program
 - / Not HHS, but health-related:
 - » Biology
 - » Mental Health minor
- Increases in applications indicating Nursing interest

SCHOOL OF HEALTH & HUMAN SCIENCES

- Housed inside College of Social & Behavioral Sciences and reports to the CSBS Dean
- Consists of 4 departments, each with its own Department Head:
 - / Department of Family, Aging & Counseling (Dr. Bill Henninger)
 - / Department of Kinesiology & Athletic Training (Dr. Fabio Fontana)
 - / Department of Nursing & Public Health (Dr. Nancy Kertz)
 - / Department of Social Work (Dr. Adam Butler, interim)

ADVISING

- Health Advising Team (the “Health Hub”)
 - / Kim Bock, Acting Assistant Director of Advising (Health Emphasis)
 - / Michelle Holland (Kinesiology & Exercise Science, Athletic Training)
 - / Linda Reardon-Lowry (Biology, including related pre-professional tracks)
 - / Colleen Sullivan (Nursing – all tracks, plus Pre-Radiography, Pre-Sonography, and Public Health)
 - / Kerrigan Tisor (Physical Education Teaching)
- Also this year, will be developing a plan to support pre-professional students intending to attend grad school & enter a health profession

NURSING FACILITIES UPDATE

- Facilities
 - ／ Phase I, demo completed & construction beginning in ITTC
 - ／ Phase II, under development
- Equipment
 - ／ Working on contract for simulation equipment and software
 - ／ Gaining insights from colleagues across state and country

NURSING STAFFING UPDATES

- Dr. Nancy Kertz, CANA & Department Head of Nursing & Public Health
- Dr. Jimmy Reyes, Instructor of Nursing
- Carrie Hollerud, Academic Coordinator of Nursing Clinical Education
- Currently searching for Clinical Assistant Professor, term position

QUESTIONS

Military and Veterans Student Services

- Henry Korf, Military and Veteran Student Services Coordinator
- Green Zone Training
- VA benefits
- Questions?

Upcoming events/notes/announcements

- September 30th–family weekend!
- Teacher Education Convocation–September 30th 9:45 (Elementary Education & Early Childhood) 11:00 (5-12, K-12 programs)
- lowAAN Annual Drive-in Conference, September 20th, @ DMACC Ankeny

Have any upcoming events you want us to share?

Email Colleen.Sullivan@uni.edu and Kyle.Haiman@uni.edu !

October Advising Network Opportunity!

- NACADA Virtual Conference
 - Thursday, October 5, 2023
 - Sessions at:
 - 9:30-10:30 AM
 - 12:30-1:30 PM
 - 1:45-2:45 PM
 - Friday, October 6, 2023
 - 8:15-9:15 AM
 - 9:30-10:30 AM
 - 12:30-1:30 PM
 - 1:45-2:45 PM
 - 3:00-4:00 PM
 - We will send an email with session titles and details!
 - Meet us in the Library to view sessions together as a group!

Next
Advising Network
Meeting is:

Next Regular Advising
Network Meeting:

November 16, 2023,
8:30-10:00 AM

ZOOM