OVERVIEW:

What is a campus dietitian?

NUTRITION: overall health and academic performance

- Cognitive Function
- Energy and Concentration
- Mood and Mental Health
- Immune Function
- Physical Health
- Long-Term Health Habits
MISSION AND GOALS

Empower and inspire the campus community to embrace a culture of holistic well-being through evidence-based nutrition guidance, fostering healthy lifestyles that contribute to optimal academic and personal success. We are committed to providing accessible, personalized nutrition services, education, and resources that empower individuals to make informed choices for lifelong health through...

1. Optimized individual health.
2. Community engagement and education
3. Accessible and Inclusive Services
4. Campus collaboration and partnerships
5. Continuous Professional Development
CAMPUS INITIATIVES

- Healthy Campus Coalition
- Eating Disorder Group
- Housing
- Wellness Coaching
- UNI Local Food Program
- Campus Activities Board
- Athletics
- Dining
PRACTICAL TIPS FOR STUDENTS

Establish Healthy Eating Habits
Prioritize Regular Physical Activity
Mindfulness and Stress Management
Positive Social Media Consumption
Prioritize Sleep
Q & A

Stacey Runde, MS, RDN, LDN
319-273-2224
Stacey.Runde@uni.edu

Lisa Smith, MA, RDN, LDN
319-273-6937
Lisa.A.Smith@uni.edu

Housing and Dining Dietitian Services
319-273-2333
nutrition@uni.edu
THANK YOU!

Please encourage students to take advantage of the available resources.